1. The Aleksandar Rankovic factory in Rijeka is engaged in the manufacture of torpedoes of national design. The warheads are filled with explosive in the arsenal at Pulj. A sectional view of the torpedo is shown on the attached sketch.
2. The factory is also manufacturing large numbers of sea-mines of national design. After completion the mines are sent to the military technical arsenal at Pulj where they are filled with the explosive charge. At the beginning of December 1949, over 1,000 such mines were stored in the arsenal at Pulj. A sectional view of the mine is shown on the attached sketch.
